Occupancy Control

- Accurate real-time monitoring of the number of people on the premises allows you to verify that you are in compliance with occupancy regulations at all times.
- Giving customers and visitors clear and accurate information about occupancy and expected wait times improves the customer experience and reduces frustration.
- Analytics – as you build up historical occupancy data you can identify underlying trends and patterns in customer/visitor behaviour.
- Occupancy data can be displayed on interactive digital signage both inside and outside the building.
- Includes monitoring, analytics and CMS.
